

Tore Nordenstam, Afrikas universitet (1970)

Abstract

An analysis of the assumptions underlying the establishment and growth of higher education in Africa from the Middle Ages up to the 1960s. The central chapter, "The Colonial Ideologies of Education", is a comparative study of the British, French, Belgian, Portuguese and Italian policies of education in Africa.